RURAL BANK OF ILIGAN CITY (LANAO DEL NORTE), INC.

As Deposit Insurer, the Philippine Deposit Insurance Corporation (PDIC) pays valid deposit insurance claims of depositors eligible for early payment through Postal Money Order (PMO) checks issued by the Philippine Postal Corporation (Philpost).

Effective July 1, 2017, a new check clearing process was implemented by the Bangko Sentral ng Pilipinas (BSP) and the Philippine Clearing House Corporation (PCHC). PMO checks issued earlier to affected depositors do not conform with the new check clearing process.

Depositors who received these PMO checks are advised to:

1. Present the PMO checks at any branch of Land Bank of the Philippines (a) for encashment (for amounts of PHP15,000 and below) or (b) for deposit (for amounts above PHP15,000); OR

2. Return the PMO checks to exchange with replacement checks. The PMO checks can be returned through any of the following:

- 2.1. Return the PMO checks personally to the post office that issued the checks;

OR

- 2.2. Return the PMO checks personally to the PDIC Public Assistance Center located at the 3rd Floor, SSS Building, 6782 Ayala Avenue corner V.A. Rufino St., Makati City;

OR

- 2.3. Return the PMO checks to PDIC through mail or courier service at this address: Public Assistance Department, 6th Floor, SSS Building, 6782 Ayala Avenue corner V.A. Rufino St., Makati City 1226

Replacement checks shall be processed and mailed to the depositor's address on record. In case of change in address, depositors shall be required to file their deposit insurance claims. Visit the PDIC website, www.pdic.gov.ph, for the procedures on how to file claims.
